tomatoes, the green peas and stacks of rhubarb in great profusion made the Second Ward market look quite attractive yesterday morning. But the Season is yet so early that the prices of many of the vegetables place them before you the reach of persons with only an ordinary income. The strawberries offered for sale are not of the highest quality, and by no means plentiful. A dealer in them confidently asserted that they would be as I searce for a month yet as they are now. He demanded thirty-five and forty cents a quart for them, and got his price. As the supply of cucumbers increases their value of ocorrse diminishes. Four for a quarter was the lowest at which they were offered yesterday. Aparagus abounds, and twenty-five cents will purchase half a dozen bunches. Cabbage from the Sonth birings ten and fifteen cents a head. The supply of tomatoes is very limited, and the price is exceedingly fancy. A huckster asks twenty-five cents per dozen for them and never blushes. The same high figures prevail with regard to new potations, which are fifty cents per half peck. THE EXCURSION TO WASHINGTON, PA.
—Notwithstanding the showers of the day previous, the day of the English Lutheran Sabbath School excursion dawned bright and clear, and the weather was all that could be desired or wished for for the purpose. Promptly at 6:10 A. M., as was announced, engine No. 287, with Thomas Noble, engineer, and Thos. O'Hara, freman, and with a train numbering eight passenger coaches, moved from the old Hempfield depot yard, amid the cheers of the bystanders, waving of handkerchiefs, etc. The engine was appropriately decorated with flags of all nations, and mottoes such as "Glory to God in the Highest," "To the Woods, to the Woods Away," etc. The second engine, No. 277, Ed. Shepprid engineer and John Quitt fireman, with a train of four coaches, left the same place at 7:45 A. M., and had on board the Wheeling City Band to chilven the occasion with unusic such as the hand is entered the more than the set in hand is entered to make the state of the results. to colliven the occasion with music such as this band is especially famous for pro-ducing, and arrived at the grove within reasonable time.

ducing, and arrived at the grove within reasonable time.

After spending a very pleasant day in the woods, the excursionists started for home, arriving here between 8 and 9 o'clock in the evening. Of course all enjoyed themselves, as nothing had been left undone to insure the success of the the affair. When Bro. Barnits undertakes a thing he carries it through with a rush.

The excursion is indebted in a great measure for the success with which it was attended and its freeness from accident to the courteous and efficient Superintendent of Transportation, Col. C. A. Woodward, R. Tr. Devries, Edward Weigerbar, W. C. King, W. Henderson and Chas. Shaw. Capt. Harry Shirls tendered the use of his beautiful grow to the school free of charge, for which he has their thanks. John Baird, of Washington, fransported the luggage to and from the grove free of charge, for which the thanks of the school were tendered him.

TRANSFER OF REAL ESTATE.—The following deed in fee transferring real estate was recorded by the Clerk of the County was recorded by the Clerk of the County Court yesterday: Deed made April 13, 1876, by James Bilby and wife to Isaac Snediker, for a tract of land in the village of Potomac; $500.

cetera. By this time Grubb had written two columns about the strange animal, with a half column of display heads, and was commencing on the third, when Geo. Black, the City Collector, entered the office. Now Black knows more about natural history than did Audubon himself, and his opinion is law. Therefore when he looked at all that was left of poor pussyives, it was a cat—he came near bursting several blood vessels in attempting to control his laughter, and—well, Grubb's sensation was spoiled.

Personal Points—Mr. J. Shriver Woods, of the County Clerk's office, yes.

A DRAMA called "Fruits of the Wine Cup" will be presented at the Baptist Church this evening. It is a temperance piece throughout, illustrating one of the phases of the temperance movement which is passing through the city.
